

- July 6 Local 574 rallies support for a strike through a mass meeting at the Parade Grounds. Workers set a deadline of July 11 for a strike.
E. H. Dunnigan, U.S. Conciliator arrives at the request of Minn. Senator Henrik Shipstead.
- July 7 Regional Labor Board issues interpretation of May 31 agreement concerning "employees."
- July 11 Workers vote for strike to commence midnight Monday, July 16.
- July 15 Meeting at Wesley Church of workers opposed to a strike.
- July 16 Workers confirm strike and endorse leadership at evening meeting.
- July 17 Strike begins.
Rev. Francis J. Haas, representing the National Labor Relations Board, arrives in Minneapolis.
- July 19 Police escort truck with "Hospital Supplies" without incident.
Governor Olson and Father Haas believe they have secured a 48 hour truce with Chief Johannes.
- July 20 "Bloody Friday." Police open fire on strikers wounding 67 and killing two.
- July 21 Chief Johannes announces temporary halt to conveying trucks.
Rev. Francis J. Haas and E. H. Dunnigan issue their plan for a settlement which becomes known as the Haas-Dunnigan Plan.
- July 25 Governor Olson Declares Martial Law and institutes a permit system for delivery trucks.
- August 1 National Guard raids strike headquarters.
- August 3 National Guard raids Citizens Alliance headquarters.
- August 5 Gov. Olson orders General Walsh to revoke all trucking permits and to institute a new permit system based on agreement to sign the Haas-Dunnigan Plan.
- August 6 Olson successfully defends his declaration of martial law against an employer requested injunction.
- August 8 F. D. Roosevelt visits Rochester, Minn., and labor delegation submits its account of the strike to him through Louis Howe.
Jesse Jones, head of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation puts Father Haas in touch with C. T. Jaffray who represents the RFC in Minneapolis.
- August 13 Haas and Dumnigan take a revised EAC proposal to the Committee of 100, which supports the union's bargaining team and rejects it.
- August 17 P. A. Donoghue from NLRB arrives in Minneapolis to conduct representation elections.
Jesse Jones calls Barton who contacts A. W. Strong, president of the Citizens Alliance.
- August 18 EAC modifies its proposal.
- August 19 EAC votes 155 to 3 to ratify the proposal. Union ratifies proposal in a mass meeting that night.
- August 21 Strike ends.
- August 22